Re: 2003 State of the Region Report for Monterey, San Benito, and Santa Cruz Counties

We would like to bring to your attention a newly released report by the Regional Analysis and Planning Services, Inc., the non-profit organization of the Association of Monterey Bay Area Governments 2003 State of the Region Report for Monterey, San Benito, and Santa Cruz Counties. The Report provides an overview of the tri-county region using key indicators from secondary data sources and compares a wide range of historic and current data for the three counties, compiled in a single report. Data was collected in view of comparisons with comparable state and in some instances, national data. Information from federal, state, local, public and private agencies is analyzed and presented to provide trends regarding the following topics:

- Population
- Housing
- Employment
- Transportation
- Education
- Environment
- Health
- Community

A table of contents of subjects covered in the report is provided with this announcement. The Regional Analysis and Planning Services, Inc., will continue to prepare updates of the State of the Region Report on an annual basis in order to provide this valuable information in a timely manner to the region.

The full color 2003 State of the Region Report for Monterey, San Benito, and Santa Cruz Counties is available for the purchase price of $25.00. Orders can be placed by contacting the Association of Monterey Bay Area Governments at (831) 883-3750. Questions regarding the report may be directed to Jason Beloso, Planner, at JBeloso@ambag.org.
